TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

The Silver Wedding Anniversary of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. McMillan

AT THEIR CHURCH IN ALLEGHENY.

the Bridal Couple.

A SILVER COIN FROM EACH AS A GIFT

The Second U. P. Church, Stockton avenue and Sandusky street, Allegheny, has been the scene of many a happy wedding, has officiated at the ceremonies that have joined together more than one J. W. WALLACE, 6121 Penn avenue. young couple, but it is doubtful if a more happy or pleasanter scene has MCALLISTER & SHEIBLER, 5th av. & Atwood st. been enacted in the church, or if the JACOB SPOHN, No. 2 Carson street. pastor and his wife have experienced the H. A. DONALDSON, DW Carson street. same sensations within its walls, as when same sensations within its walls, as when they were surrounded last night by a large H. J. McBRIDE, Federal street.

THE TABLES WERE TURNED. The welder of holy bonds was placed back in memory to the time when he stood at the altar as an actor in a ceremony the like of which had many times since been performed by himself.

The arrangements for the silver wedding were made by the ladies of the congregation, were made by the ladies of the congregation. The Sunday school room had been beautifully decorated with flowers and tropical plants; a lemenade fountain being hidden here by feres and trailing vines; a group of plants there; the whole comming to enhance the beauty of the scene and form a brilliant setting for the scores of wedding guests who hovered around the bride and groom of a quarter of a century ago. Soon a hand near the platform filled the air with wedding strains, and the attention of the guests was attracted the platform filled the air with wedding strains, and the attention of the guests was attracted to Rev. Dr. Reed, of the First United Presbyterian Church, Plitsburg, who in a few remarks, half in jest and half in earnest, presented the pastor and his wife with a beautiful chafing dish of oxidized silver and filled with silver coins, representing about $500.

THE APPROPRIATE IMPRINT. On the dish were engraved the dates 1864 and 188) and a monogram. A set of silver oyster forks, from Prof. Morrow, Superintendent of Allegheny City Schools, and Mr. Caldwell was also presented, Rev. Dr. W. J. Robinson accepted the gifts. The couple were then escorted to the bridal table, on which was a large wedding cake, its table, on which was a large wedding cake, its crest finely wrought in a pretty design. Rev. Dr. Reed and wite and Rev. Dr. Robinson and wite also sat at the table. Placed around the different rooms were small tables with bowls of flowers on each, and around these the guests sat and partook of the wedding dinner.

Rev. Dr. McMillan has been pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church for I'y years, and in that time has gathered around him many friends and a large congregation, as was evinced by the tokens of regard shown him and his co-worker, Mrs. McMillan, at the ovation tendered them last night. And perhaps the occasion will be looked back to by the pastor and his wife with pleasant remembrances until the wedding date is more than doubled.

A SILVER WEDDING.

Captain Adam Jacobs and Wife Receive Their Many Friends.

Captain and Mrs. Adam Jacobs, of Brownssille, celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding yesterday. As the Jacobs families are numbered among the pioneers of Brownsville, the anniversary brought together a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The Monongahela packet, Adam Jacobs, is named after the captain, and on account of his large acquinitance in this city, several Pittsburgers attended the celebration yesterday.

A picnic party was held at Shadyside yester-day afternoon. The guest of honor was Mr. Addison McKinley, of Chicago, who formerly resided in this city. The party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKinley. Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scott.
